

Welcome

The Village of Silvis (initially named Pleasant Valley) was incorporated in 1906. The Village took its name from Richard Shippen Silvis, one of the original settlers whose family operated the Silvis Mining Company. Silvis is on a growing edge of this bi-state area and will continue to be a City of Progress.